FACULTY AND STAFF

ADMINISTRATION

To the Class of 1983:

Living with and caring for you and your education for the past three years has been my distinct privilege, pleasure and sacred duty. You may never again find a life support system such as you have had at Lincoln High School.

You are about to embark on life's journey as an adult with the responsibility to make a difference in the lives of others while seeking self-fulfillment of the dreams you hold most dear.

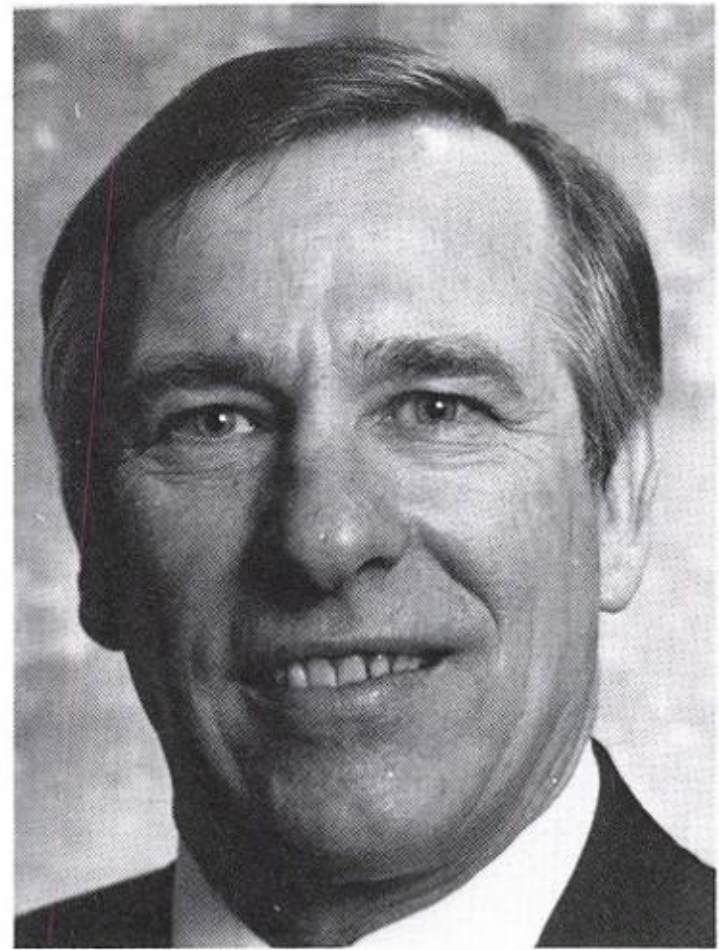

Lincoln High School graduates in 1983 have special responsibilities. These are to prepare yourselves to assume the leadership in the world community; to participate fully as citizens of the community which bred you, and to uphold the rich heritage that is Lincoln. Since 1939, the graduates of your school have left and entered the world of work and services to the community in various ways that "do us so proud". It now becomes your task to hold that torch of work and service so high that those who come after you "see its light" and follow you to even greater heights.

Life will reward you only in proportion to what you are willing to invest. If you give all that you can, it will be returned to you threefold. The joy that you send into the lives of others comes back into your own. Each of us has some gift. We shall receive pleasure and comfort only to the extent in which we use our gift to bring pleasure and help to others.

You have just achieved a milestone. It is time now to set your sights on new goals which will take you farther than you ever dreamed. Pursue those goals with all your might, knowing that Lincoln High School's principal and staff wish you well and God's speed in all that you do.

Napoleon Lewis
Principal

Mr. Napoleon Lewis, Principal

Mr. Linus Wright,
Superintendent of Schools

DISD Board Of Trustees

VICE PRINCIPALS

Dr. Ora Lee Watson
Dean of Instruction

WELCOME TO LINCOLN:

Over 1100 students crossed Lincoln's doorsteps during this school year. In one way or another, they all passed through the front offices either as numbers on data sheets and absentee reports or as real people facing either good or bad news. In either case, a call from the front office was seldom ignored by teachers or students.

Top: Vice Principal and Magnet School Co-ordinator, Dr. Herb Ruffin.

Right: Vice Principal Mr. Ralph Hollywood

PLEASE SIGN IN!

MAGNET

Top: Practicing recording on a cassette player can lead to bigger things like taping on a reel-to-reel or working the synchronizer.

RADIO - TV

This was the first year of full operation for the Magnet Radio and Television Studios. Students worked as production crews and ran TV cameras, switches, lights, the audio system and anything else needed to get the show going. The projects included radio dramas, two and three camera productions and a documentary about Lincoln High School.

Amidst this creativity, the television studio was shut down for several weeks, leaving Mr. Glass and his students "homeless" while Warner Amex cable company installed a public access studio. The beginning of February saw Mr. Glass and his students happily reinstalled in their studio.

But, thanks to Warner Amex, Lincoln now has two television studios, one of which can be used by the Dallas Community non-school hours. One radio station and two television studios is certainly a lot of good hype for Lincoln!

Spinning an oldie-but-goody at the radio station.

Taping in front of a live audience during Honors Assembly.

In The News:

JOURNALISM

Formality was not a primary concern of the three Lincoln Journalism classes. The number one job was to publish the newspaper, The Lincoln Lantern, and to get the yearbook to the printer on time. The staffers did just that. They published four issues of the Lantern, including a special senior issue and got the yearbook done under the most trying circumstances. In-between, the students with their teacher, Ms. Sonja Rosenfeld, managed to squeeze in some fun. The reward for all of the hard work? Getting your name into print and knowing you did your job well!

After all this hard work, taking a semester final seemed almost like a relief! Well, at least Dennis Johnson, grinning in the far left corner, seemed to think so. The rest of the crew doesn't look too enthused!

Humanities: MEETING NEW CHALLENGES

The official title of the Magnet School is "Lincoln Humanities/Communication Magnet." The humanities program includes a broad base in history, language and fine arts.

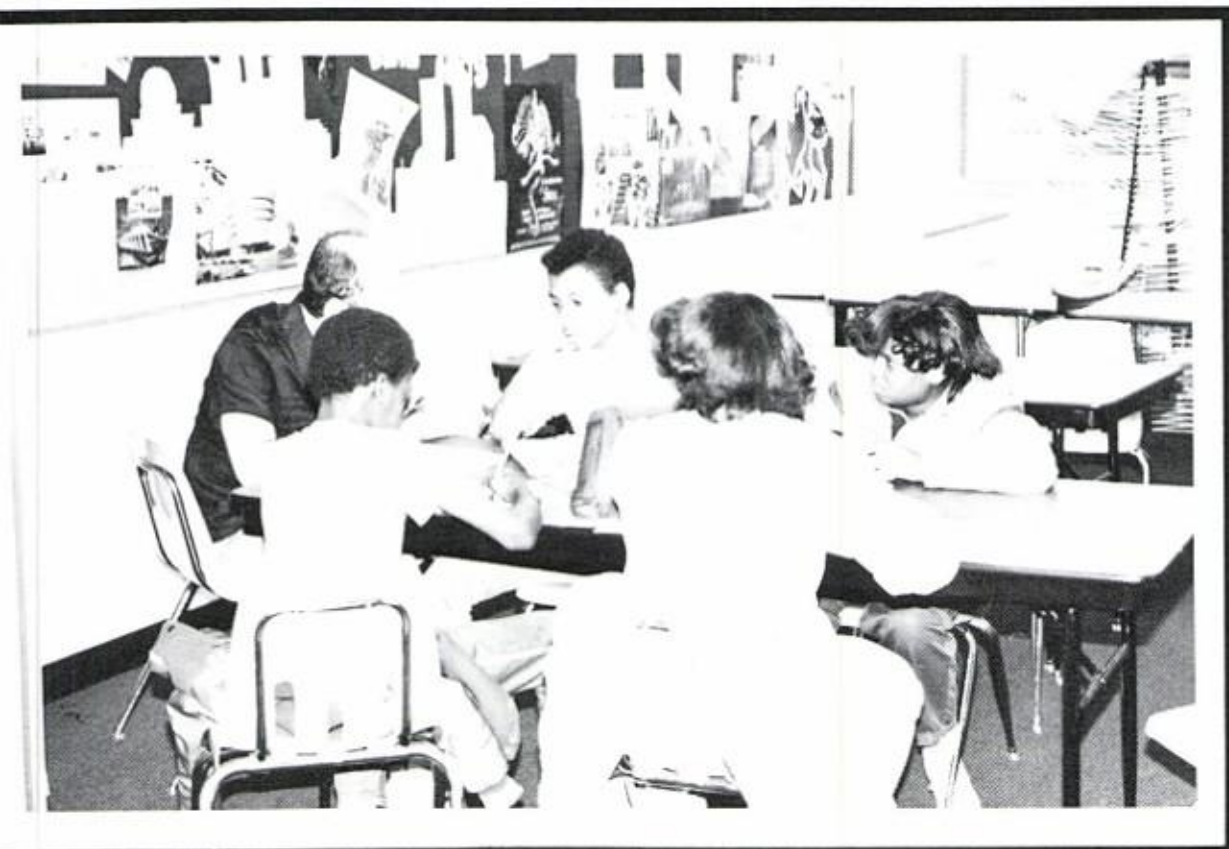

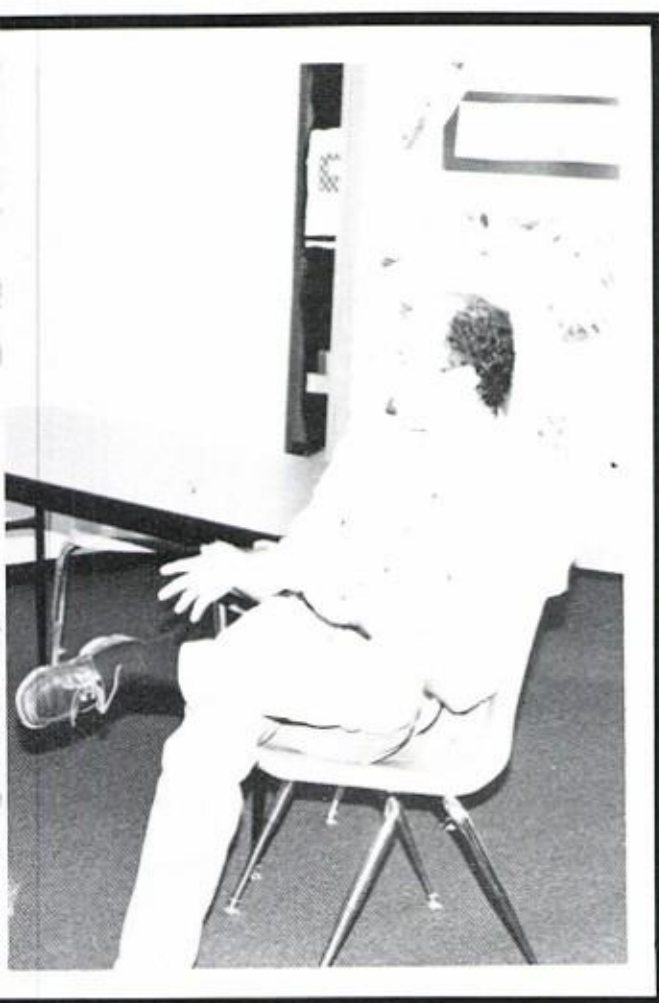

Students may participate in a combination of disciplines within the magnet school. Field trips and special seminars enhance classroom instruction. Being a magnet student means working hard, but it also offers opportunities not always found in the regular classroom.

Ms. Carol Leming teaches French. Her second period class seems happy about that, ne pas? Left row (front-back) Lelandida Gowans, Leslie Alexander, Alton Anderson, (standing) Linda Wallace, Ms. Leming. Right row (front-back) Tanya Mims, Tammie Brown, Sabrina Cary, Anita Wright.

Magnet School teachers share ideas and learn new skills during special planning sessions. Shown are Mrs. Talton, Ms. Leming, Dr. Ruffin, Magnet coordinator, Mr. Fisher and Ms. Counts.

Officers And Favorites

Senior Class Favorites

Without a doubt, an individual's senior year is "the year". It's the year of special privileges-like being exempt from final exams. It's the year when rank counts and juniors, sophomores and freshmen all wish they were seniors too! The class of '83 played this role to the hilt. Theirs was a close-knit class where few were strangers.

Measuring for cap and gown, taking senior pictures, and ordering graduation invitations were some of the things which set seniors apart from underclassmen. Yet in their hearts, they were still and will always be, a part of the Lincoln tradition.

The Senior favorites list reflects the spirit of the Class of 1983.

MISS LINCOLN: A TRADITION

The judges were out and the tension was mounting! The audience grew restless while waiting for the judges to decide who would be Miss Lincoln 1982-83. Finally, the moment came! As Master of Ceremonies, Bryon Solis called out the winners' names and gave each a congratulatory kiss, the new Miss Lincoln, Michele Eikner began her reign.

Flanked by her court consisting of Jacquelin Freeman, first runner-up; Deena Brown, second; and Carolina Ellison, third runner-up, Miss Lincoln was crowned by Principal Lewis.

A radiant Michele Eikner begins her reign as the new Miss Lincoln. This title is bestowed each year upon the most outstanding Senior girl.

LIVES ON . . .

The ceremony included the traditional presenting of gifts to Miss Lincoln from school organizations. The audience was also entertained by a presentation featuring Denny Wollen, Dennis Johnson, Freddie Copper, Joyce Jennings and Stephanie Jacques.

Watching the glitter and glamour of the Miss Lincoln pageant, it seemed hard to remember that the tradition of the pageant almost ended this year because most contestants who had signed up for the contest could not meet the required 3.0 grade average.

Dressed in formal attire, the court attends Miss Lincoln; (l-r) Jacquelin Freeman, Miss Lincoln, Deena Brown, Carolina Ellison.

Dressed in colorful kimonos, Miss Lincoln candidates reflect the oriental theme, "Oriental Fantasy", of the pageant.

Homecoming:

HAIL TO THE QUEEN...

Amidst the fanfare of the Tiger Band, Lincoln rolled out the red carpet to crown Denise Sneed, Homecoming Queen, October 29. Escorted by Don Collins, a tearful Denise, flanked by her court, was crowned by Mr. Lewis. Her attendants were Paula Thomas, escorted by John McClinton, Rosalind Alexander, escorted by Billy Giggins and Dewana Pumphery, escorted by Ronnie Horn. Said Denise about her tears, "The were tears of joy. Everything was so beautiful!"

STUDENT LIFE

Keeping Lincoln

FIT . . .

What eats 300 pounds of hamburger on any given day? The cafeteria staff could tell you! Every day they prepare an average of 650 meals or more for Lincoln students and staff. Pictured from row (l-r) are: Ms. Linda Eleby, Ms. Welda K. Shaw, Ms. Tennie Rose, head dietitian, Ms. Bobbie Phillips, Ms. Edwina Sloan, Ms. Alinda Thomas. Second row: Ms. Emma Hunt, Ms. Marjorie McMillon, Ms. Betty Turner, Ms. Anderlean Oliver. Third row: Ms. Betty Mitchell, Ms. Ruby Turner.

CLEAN . . .

How many trashcans are there at Lincoln? The janitorial staff not only empties them, but keeps track of them as well. It takes two crews to keep Lincoln "looking good". Pictured here are some of them. Seated (l-r): Charlie Robinson, Dexter Sanders, Larry Douglas. Standing: Charles Thomas, Major Gardner, Joseph Perez, Percy Cole, Leroy Nesbit.

ORGANIZED . . .

Who sponsors, helps plan and chaperones student activities? Who else but Homeroom teachers! The nine senior Homeroom sponsors are: Mrs. Billie Rogers, Mr. Richard Goodwin, Mrs. Jacquelyn Maclin, Coach George Roland, Mr. Dewayne Barringer, Mrs. Evelyn Hamilton, Mr. Cleveland Jackson, Mrs. Obenna Hartford, Coach Joseph Daniels. YES VIRGINIA . . .

... Teachers do "hang out" in the lounge. They do like to keep fit with aerobics. They even curl each others hair to look good at basketball tournaments! If they're a vice-principal, they get to show new teachers around. If they're coaches, they get to read the paper with a second cup of coffee. These pictures tell all! There's only one mystery left- what's in Mrs. Bhat's Big Brown Bag?

IT TAKES A LOT . . . TO KEEP A GREAT BAND MARCHING!

There's more than meets the eye to being a member of the Tiger Band. What Tiger fans usually see of the band are precision marching and spirit rousing musical performers at games or assemblies. What most of them don't see are the hours of practice, endless bus rides and the sheer physical efforts of keeping instruments, player and buses together—all going in the same direction. Mr. Norman Fisher directs three bands. They are Advance Band which performs at games; Beginning Band for students just learning an instrument, and the Jazz Band which performs in concert.

Top: Mothers come in real handy when you're a tuba player with a loose strap.

CHOIR:

WILL THEY, OR WON'T THEY?

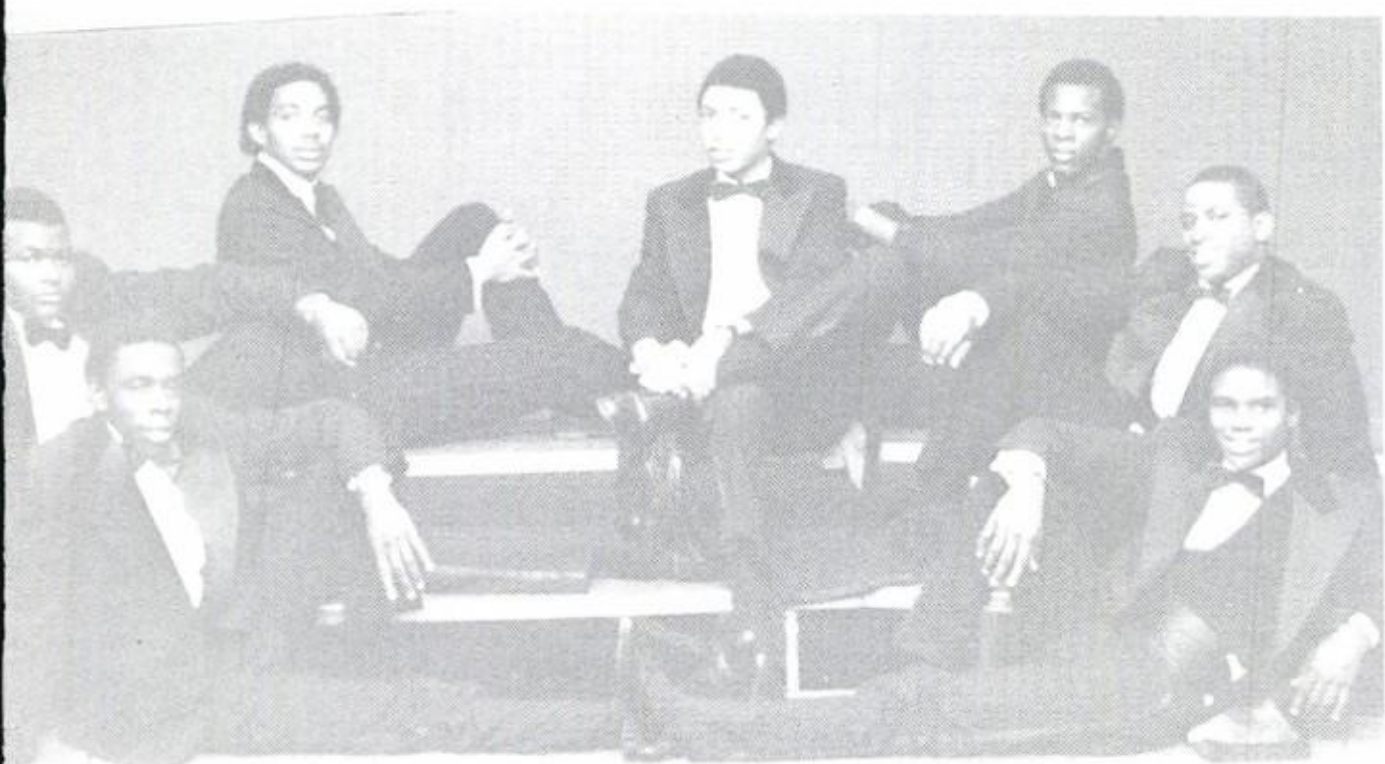

Go to Vienna, that is! All year long expectations fluctuated. Choir members under direction of Mrs. Hamilton sang at multitudinous community functions to raise contributions for the choir's trips. Many civic groups and businesses contributed generously. At press time, the choir had raised over half the money needed for the trip. Let's think positively and say "Onward to Vienna?"

The Reverend O.H. Briscoe presents a check for the choir to Mr. Lewis while Mrs. Hamilton looks on.

IN THE LIMELIGHT . . .

All year long the drama department under the direction of Ms. Lynna Counts kept Lincoln entertained. They presented such fare as "The Undercover Lover," and their UIL entry, "Roister Doister" to student audiences. Year round the drama department kept the auditorium stage ready for all Lincoln functions. From routine assemblies to special events such as the Miss Lincoln Pageant and the Faculty Talent Show, Ms. Counts and her crew worked lights, curtains, found props and offered invaluable advice to the uninitiated? According to the students, it was rope burns from curtain raisings and burned-out stage lights — a small price to pay for being at center stage, no doubt.

THE SPORTING LIFE . . .

Football is an intense, emotional game. These photos reflect some of the moments of the 1982-83 Lincoln Tiger football season.

TIGER FOOTBALL . . .

The Tigers ended their season with the following standings. The Junior Varsity Team took the District championship. The Freshman Team ranked third in District and the Varsity team ended their season ranking fourth in District. Not a bad showing for the Tigers.

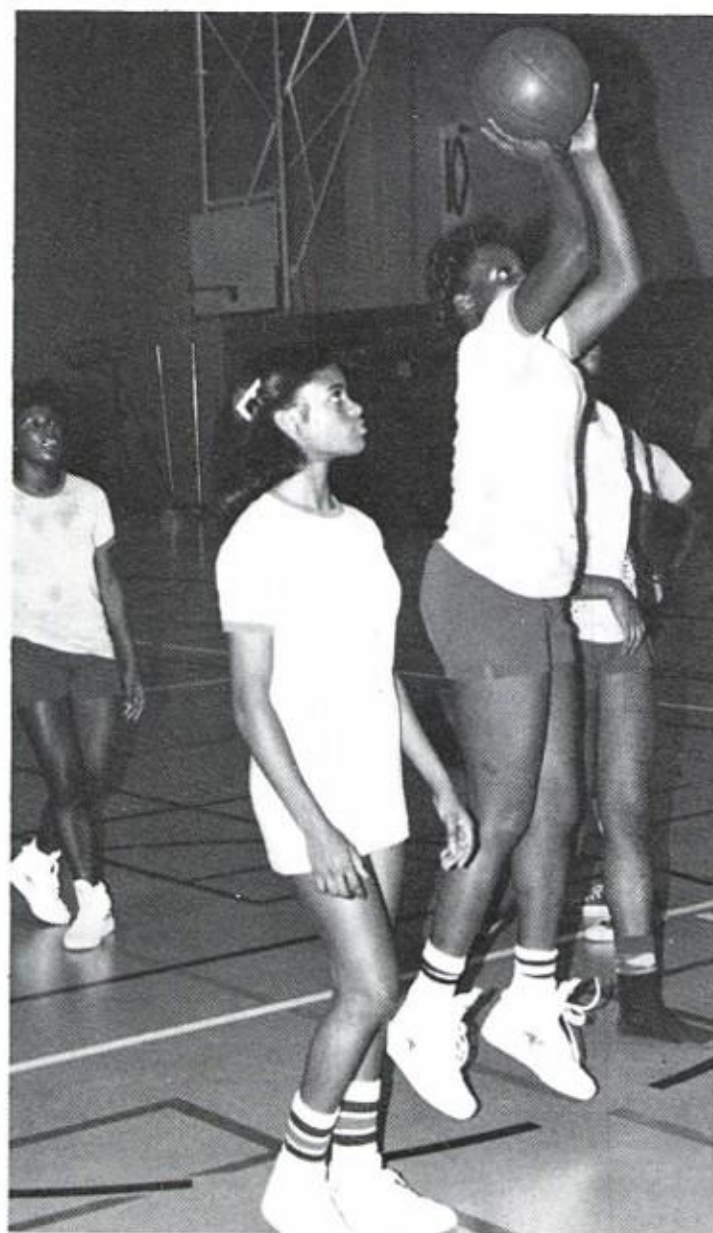

BASKETBALL

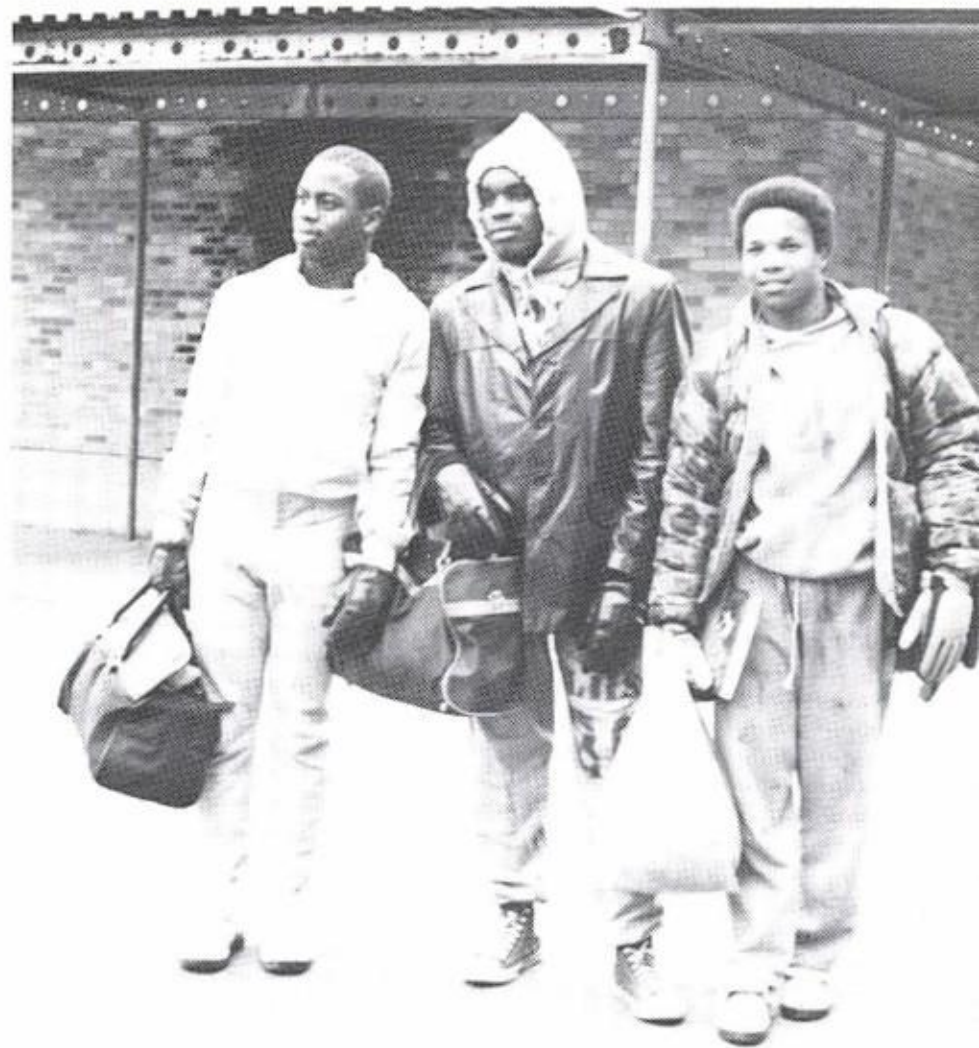

In boys basketball, the Varsity Team was one game away from qualifying for the state playoffs at press time. Earlier in the season the varsity won the 4A Division of the Dr. Pepper Tournament. The Boys JV team won the District Championship and the Freshman Boys team ended their season with a second place ranking in District.

The Girls Varsity basketball team placed fifth in district. The JV team played hard, but were unable to garner a spot. All in all, 1983 was a great season for basketball.

MAKING TRACKS!

Lincoln Track Team members were a hardy crew. Rain and cold weather barely interrupted their practice. Over a dozen boys and girls ran this spring to represent Lincoln in city-wide and D.I.S.D. track events.

GOLF:

PUTT-ING IT ON !

Golfers, as everyone knows, play only when the sun shines and everyone else is stuck at work! Right? Consequently, the Lincoln Golf Team waited to organize until February when there were only days of balm and sunshine! Judging from these photos, however, we can see that, despite the weather, the golfers were "putting" very nicely. Members of the Lincoln Golf Team are: Freda Garner, Sandra Turner, Doris Young, Lois Henderson, and Mr. Tom Hubbard, coach.

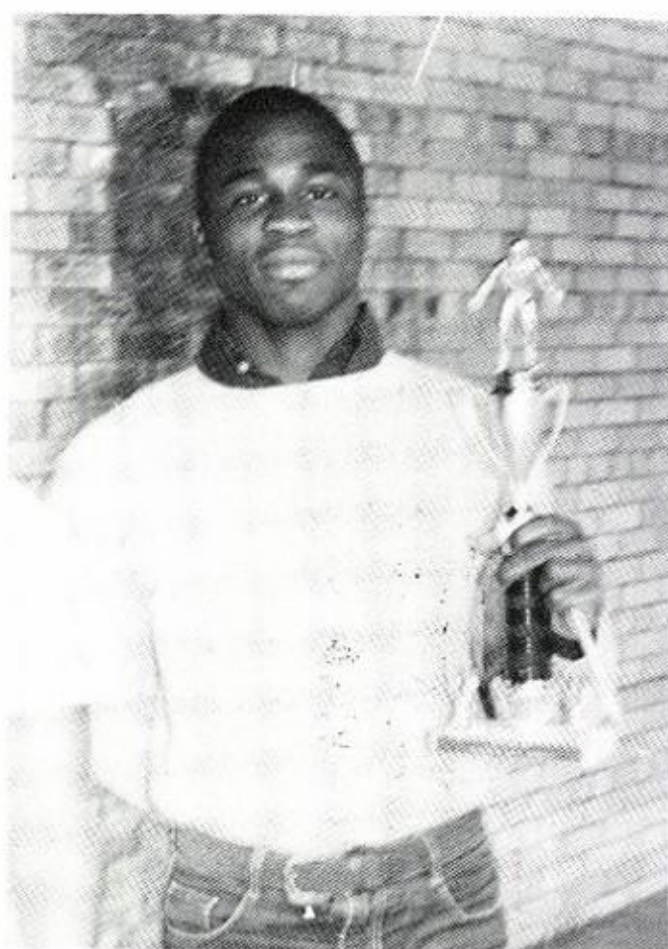

WRESTLING

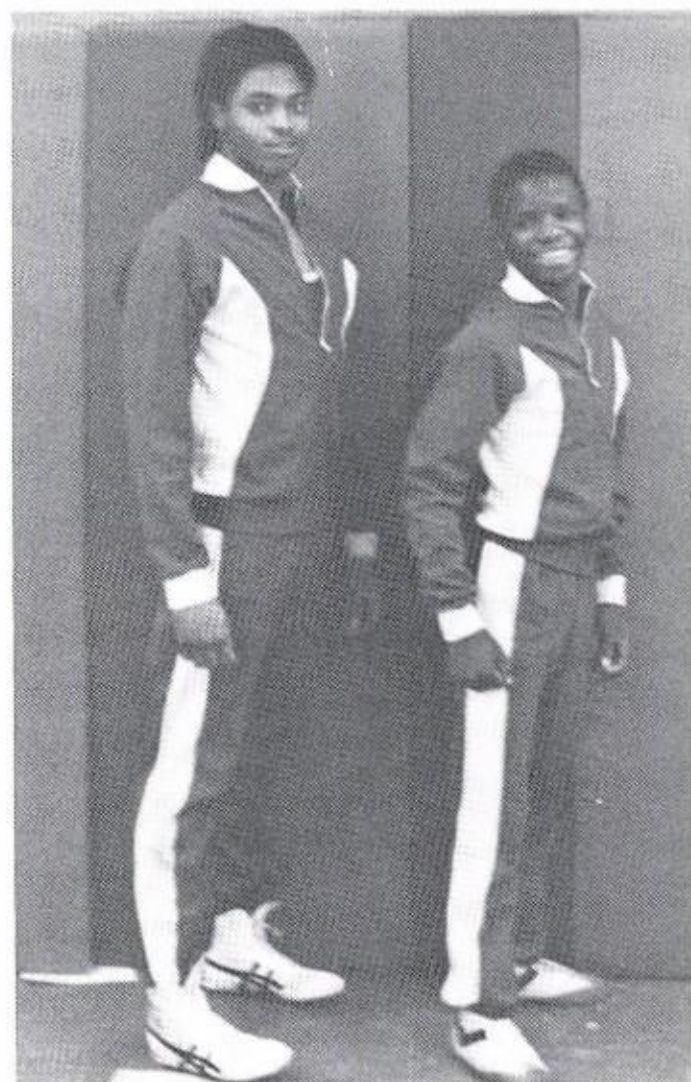

Five members of the Lincoln Wrestling Team competed in the state finals this year. They were the youngest team at the convention. Larry Allen placed seventh and other team members placed tenth. What a terrific way to end a season!

Damon Taylor holds Second Place District trophy. He also came in first in Regionals.

Ernie Brown and Gerald Hayes took First Place in District.

VOLLEYBALL:

“SERVING” WITH A SMILE . . .

Volleyball was the first female sport of the season at Lincoln. The Varsity team ended their 1982 season ranked fourth in district. The JV team, though trying hard, didn't place.
